Gleichen Clean-Up Day Proved Great Success

Last Friday will be a long remembered day by all good Gleichen folks as a great and better day.

Sharp at 1:30 that afternoon the sirene fire whistle sounded and immediately every worthy citizen of Gleichen appeared in highways and byways dressed in full regalia for real labor and armed with shovels, forks, hoes, rakes, etc., loaded for actions, while teams, autos and tractors hove in sight, hauling grain tanks, drays and vehicles of all sorts that might contain a load.

Under the generalship of Mayer Tudhope the ten captains in command issued their orders and at once the rank and file fell to work and. when six o'clock came Gleichen's streets,avenues, lanes,vacant lots, and back yards had never received such a raking and cleaning and,scores of great loads of rubbish had been had been hauled out and dumped on the nuisance grounds.

While too much credit cannot be given the workers on this holiday (a very much questioned word), it is not not necessay to mention individuals for all tried to do their very best.

But we must mention the good work accomplished by the school boys and girls. The ladies of the teaching staff took charge of all the girls and the small boys, who worked as hard as they possibly could, as the school grounds now prove, being neat and clean and a credit to the children, teachers and town

But the bigger boys. Boys, oh, boys! What boys they are! Fine, boys! Robust, boys! Gentlemanly boys! Boys, that can and do work as all boys should work. It was good to see them work and Principal may well feel proud of the work they acomplish that afternoon under shis leadership. Advisedly we say "leadership". He does not command, but his request or advice is no sooner expressed than complied with. Briefly, the boys not only respect him but like him—the two greatest assets a teacher can possess. When he said, "Boys, there are a lot of cans up that lane", the boys marched up that lane and when they reached the far end a cyclone could not have cleaned it more effectually. Then on to conquor greater things they swept from the east end of the town westward, stopping as the teams came along to loan the wagons with the great piles they gathered. At the postoffice this young army was halted and lining up marched to the Town Hall, where the ladies served them with lemonade, cake, pie, etc. Make no mistake. This, too, is a job our boys can make good at.

They returned to the attack on the tin cans, but when six o clock came they had not reached the west end of the town.

Undaunted they came back on Tuesday evening and completed the work.

Three Cheers and a Tiger for OUR BOYS!!

Mayor Tudhope Expresses His Thanks

Editor, Call:

I wish to thank the citizens for the hearty way in which they cooperated with the Council's campaign last Friday afternoon. I desire to make special mention of the effective work done by the boys under the leadership of Mr. H. D. McKay, and also of the ladies who served lunch for the boys, which apparently they appreciated very much.

A. R. TUDHOPE,
Mayor.

CHAPTER ONE

The shadows of the spruce trees fell northeastward, pointing long, cool fingers across belts of undulating prairie, or leaning lazily against the brown foothills. Like an incandescent globe the afternoon sun hung in the bowl of a cloudless heaven, filmy with heat, but the hot rays were met by the high altitude of the ranch country and lost their force like a blow half struck. And among the spruce trees it was cool and green, and clear blue water rippled over beds of shining gravel.

The ranch buildings lay a little to the rear, as though the trees stood sentinel between them and the prairies. The house was of round straight logs; the singles of the squat roof were cupped and blistered with the suns of many summers. Refuse loitered about the open door; many empty tins; a leaky barrel, with missing hoops; boxes, harness, tangled bits of wire. Once there had been a fence; a sort of picket fence of little saplings, but wild bronchos had kicked it to pieces and range steers had straggled unscarred across its scattered remnants.

Forward, and to the left, was the corral; mill slabs on end, or fences of lodge pole pine; a corner somewhat covered in, offering vague protection from the weather. The upper poles were worn thin with the cribbing of many horses.

The sunlight bathed the scene; nursed it in a soft, warm silence. The desertion seemed absolute; the silence was the silence of the unspoken places. But suddenly it was broken by a stamping in the covered part of the corral, and a man's voice saying, "Hip, there; whoa, you cayuse; get under, your saddle! Sleepin' against a post all day, you sloppy-eye. Hip, come to it!"

Horse and rider dashed into the sunlight. The boy—for he was no more than a boy—sat the beast as though born to it, his lithe frame taking every motion of his mount as softly as a good boat rides the sea. His red shirt and thick hairy schaps could not disguise the lean muscularity of his figure; the broad felt hat, and the revolver at his belt, gave just the touch of romance. With a yell at his horse he snatched the hat from his head, turning to the sun a smooth, brown face and a mane of dark hair, and slapped the horse across the flank with his crumpled headgear. At the signal the animal sprang into the air, then dashed at a gallop down the roadway, bearing the body as unconcerned as a flower on its stem.

Suddenly he brought his horse to a stop; swung about, and rode back at a gentle canter. A few yards from the house he again spurred him to a gallop, and, leaning far down by the animal's side, deftly picked a bottle from among the grass. Then he circled about, repeating this operation as often as his eye fell on a bottle, until he had half a dozen; then down the road again, carefully setting a bottle on each post of the fence that skirted it to the right.

Again he came back to the house, but, when he turned, his eye was on the row of posts, and his right hand lay on the grip of his revolver. Again his sharp yell broke the silence and the horse dashed forward as though shot from a gun. Down the road they went until within a rod of the first bottle; then there was a flash in the sunlight, and to the clatter of the horse's hoofs came the crack-crack of the revolver. Two bottles shivered to fragments, but four remained intact, and the boy rode back, muttering and disappointed.

He reasoned with his horse as he rode. "'Tain't no use, you ol' slop-eye; a fellow can't get the bede if he ain't got the fillin'; cooked meals and decent chuck. I could plug 'em six out o' six—you know that, you o' flop-ears; don't you argue about it, neither—when I'm right inside my belt, I can smash 'em six out o' six, but I ain't right, an' you know it. You don't know nothin' about it; you never had a father, leastways, you never had to be responsible for one. Well, it's comin' to a finish—a damn lame finish, you know that. You know——"

But he had reloaded his revolver and set up two more bottles. This time he broke four, and was better pleased with himself. As he rode back his soliloquy was broken by a strange sound from beyond the belt of trees. The horse pricked up his ears, and the boy turned in the saddle to listen.

"Jumpin' crickets, what's loose?" he ejaculated. He knew every sound of the foothill country, but this was strange to him. A kind of snort, a sort of hiss; mechanical in its regularity, startling in its strangeness, it came across the valley with the unbroken rhythm of a watch tick.

"Well, I guess it won't eat us," he ventured at last. "We'll just run it down and perhaps poke a hole in it." So saying, he cantered along the road which skirted the spruce trees, crossed the little stream and swung up the hill on the farther side.

He was half way up when a turn in the road brought him into sudden sight of the strange visitor. It was the first he had seen, but he knew it at once, for the fame of the automobile, then in its single-cylinder stage, had already spread into the farthest ranching country. The horse was less well informed. Whether or not in that moment he recognized the great rival of his race must be left to some analyst of horse character, but he bucked and kicked in rage and terror. But the boy was conscious not so much of the horse as of two bright eyes turned on him in frank and surprised admiration.

"What horsemanship" she exclaimed, but the words had scarce left her lips when they were followed by a cry of alarm. For the car had taken a sudden turn from the road and plunged into a growth of young poplars that fringed the hillside. The oldish man at the wheel gave it a violent wrench but left his motor in gear, and the car half slid, half plowed its way into semi-vertical position among the young trees. The two occupants were thrown from their seat; the girl fell clear, but her father was less fortunate.

In an instant the boy had flung himself from his horse, dropping the reins to the ground, and the animal, although snorting and shivering, had no thought of disgracing his training by breaking his parole. With quick, ungainly strides the boy brought himself to the upturned machine. It was curious that he should appear to such disadvantage on his feet. In the saddle he was grace personified.

For a moment he looked somewhat stupidly upon the wreck. Had it been a horse or a steer he would have known the procedure, but this experience was new to his life. Besides, there were strangers here. He had no fear of strangers when they wore schaps and colored handkerchiefs, but a girl in a brown sweater and an oldish man with a white collar were creatures to be approached with caution. The oldish man was lying on the ground, with a leg pinned under the car and Brown Sweater raised his head against her knee and looked at the boy with bright grey eyes and said, "Well, aren't you going to do anything?"

That brought him back. "Sure," he said, springing to her side. "Whada ye' want me to do?"

"I am afraid my leg is broken," said the man, speaking calmly notwithstanding his pain. "Can you get the jack out of the tool box and raise the car?"

The girl pointed to the box, and in a moment he had the jack in his hand. But it was a new tool to him and he fumbled with it stupidly. The handle would not fit, and when it did fit it operated the wrong way.

"Oh, let me have it," she cried, impatiently. In a moment she had it set under the frame of the car and was plying the handle up and down with rapid strokes. The machine began to groan with the pressure, and the boy looked on, helpless and mortified. He was beginning to realize that there were more things in the world than riding a horse, and shooting bottles. He felt a sudden desire to be of great service. And just now he could be of no service whatever.

But the foot of the jack began to sink in the soft earth, and the girl looked up helplessly. "It won't lift it," she said. "What shall we do?"

It was his chance. He was eighteen, and his wild, open life, had given him muscles of steel. "Here," he said roughly, "move his leg when I get it clear." He turned his back to the machine and crouched down until he could get his hands under the steel frame. Then he lifted. The car was in a somewhat poised position, and he was able to swing it up far enough to release the injured leg.

"Very good, my boy," said the man. "That was a wonderful lift. The leg is broken—compound. Can you get some way of moving me to shelter? I will pay you well."

The last words were unfortunate. Hospitality in the ranching country is not bought and sold.

"You can't pay me nothin'," he said rudely. "But I can bring a light wagon, if you can ride in that, and put you up at the ranch. The old man's soused," he added, as an afterthought, "but it's better than sleepin' out. I won't be long."

He was back at his horse, and in a moment they heard the clatter of hoofs galloping down the hillside.

The girl sat on the ground and rested her father's head in her lap. Tears made her bright eyes brighter still.

"Don't cry, Reenie," he said gently. "We are very lucky to be so close to help. Of course, I'll be laid up for a while, but it will give you a chance to see ranch life as it really is"—he winced with pain, but continued, "I fancy we shall find it plain and unveneered. What a horseman!! If I could run an automobile like he does a horse we should not be here. Did you notice that I didn't release the cluch? Just ambled into this predicament—embraced it, I might say."

Hurrah! How's This

Cincinnati authority says corns dry up and lift out with fingers.

Hospital records show that every time you cut a corn you invite lockjaw or blood poison, which is needless, says a Cincinnati authority, who tells you that a quarter ounce of a drug called freezone can be obtained at little cost from the drug store but is sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You simply apply a few drops of freezone on a tender, aching corn and soreness is instantly relieved. Shortly the entire corn can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

This drug is sticky but dries at once and is claimed to just shrivel up any corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Willing to Surrender Kaiser

Dutch Favor Getting Rid of Crown Prince Too

Calgary. — F. M. Watcher, general manager of the Rotterdam-Canadian Mortgage bank, who is here to look after Dutch interests, emphatically declared that Holland is not only ready but willing to surrender the ex-kaiser to the allies. He states that the Dutch people do not want any trouble over him and will give him up. He says, in fact, the feeling is very strong this way, and is also strong in favor of getting rid of the crown prince too.

Mr. Watcher is here to arrange for the investment of one million in Alberta mortgages. His company already has six millions so invested. He states that many Dutch farmers are wanting to come to Canada to settle.

Jugo-Slavs Clash With Austrians

London. — The Jugo-Slav and Austrian forces have commenced hostilities on the River Drave; but an official dispatch from Belgrade denies that the initiative was taken by the former, and alleges that the Austrian troops are guilty of daily attacks on the troops and terrorization of the population, which it was necessary to deal with vigorously. The military situation is not clear, but the Austrians appealed unsuccessfully to the Italian troops in the Tarvis area to intervene.

Exhibition in Athens

Canadian Manufacturers are Being Invited to Co-operate

Ottawa. — During the months of September and October, according to the weekly bulletin of the department of trade and commerce, a large industrial exhibition is to be held in Athens, Greece, by the federation of British industries, which is a corporation designed to regain trade lost during the war. Canadian manufacturers are being invited to co-operate in this exhibition. A communication to the Canadian trade commission points out the timeliness of the exhibition and the favorable opportunities it will offer to bring before Greek, Balkan and Levant merchants Canadian products and manufactures. It is believed that participation at the commencement of trade relations between the two countries will lead to permanent trade. The friendliness of the Greek government is assured, and the communication hints that there will be good justification for making the Canadian exhibition one of the most prominent. The Greeks are the chief merchants and traders throughout the eastern Mediterranean coast, Asia Minor and the Balkans, and it is calculated that there is in Greece at present an accumulation of cash to the extent of $300,000,000 above normal, secured in war orders, and that merchants are impatient to receive machinery and raw materials to carry on national industries and international trade.

Exploring for Oil In Great Britain

If It Exists It Must Be Obtained for Home Consumption

London. — The government has decided to explore Great Britain for oil. There is apparently no reason why British battleships should not be steaming on oil fuel got from beneath the country's own soil, nor is there any reason why some of the motor cars should not be driven by petrol obtained from under the roads they run upon. In the past Great Britain has been too careless of the wealth that lies under her feet. Petrol, lamp oil, fuel oil from overseas were sold so cheaply that no one was prepared to risk money in drilling for oil in England. But the war has changed the entire position; and petroleum has become so precious that, if it exists in England, it must be searched for and obtained.

That it does so exist has been proved on many occasions during the last century or two. At Clowne, near Chesterfield, there was a flow of 700 to 1,000 gallons daily. Whilst a flow at Coalport, mentioned in 1836 by Dr. Prestwich, is stated to have formerly yielded 1,000 gallons a week.

Repatriating Czecho-Slovaks

Three Ships On Their Way to Orient Now

Washington. — The United States has undertaken to assist the transportation of the Czecho-Slovaks from Siberia to Czecho-Slovakia, at the request of the authorities in Prague, it was learned recently. As rapidly as ships are made available, the Czechs will be transported until all are repatriated.

Three ships are on their way to the Orient now to bring several thousand of these soldiers across the Pacific. Czechs have all been withdrawn from the fighting front in Russia and are assisting the Kolchak government at Omsk and along the line of the Siberian railway to Vladivostok.

There are at present in Siberia approximately 40,000 Czech soldiers, representing what is left of the troops who deserted from the Austrian army and who fought first against the central powers and then against the Bolsheviki.

The expense of transporting these soldiers to Czecho-Slovakia is borne by the Czecho-Sloyak republic, but the United States will assist in getting them to Europe by directing the transportation from Vladivostok across the Pacific, the American continent and the Atlantic.

He believes the time is soon coming when helium will have a great commercial value and this will mean great things for western Canada.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR MAY 25—REPENTANCE

1. The Repentance of the People of Nineveh (3:1-10).

The following steps are noted in their conversion:

1. Hearing the Word of the Lord (v. 1-4).

The Lord commanded Jonah to go to Nineveh, a great and wicked city, and there "preach the preaching" that he bade him. Jonah's runaway experience (see chapters 1, 2) was such that he was willing to obey God. His chastisement was severe, but by God's grace he was now ready to execute the commission. "Jonah arose and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord" (v. 3). So great was the city of Nineveh that it required three days to compass it; that is, to visit its very centres of activity. Jonah, coming from Palestine, doubtless entered the city from the south, and during an entire day going from centre to centre cried, "Yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown" (v. 4). Since the king's palace seems to have been in the south part of the city Jonah's message soon found its way to him. If every preacher would preach what God bids him there would be more cities turning to God.

2. Believing God (v. 5).

They not only believed God would visit judgment upon them, but believed in God, and put their trust in him for mercy and salvation.

3. Repented (v. 5-9).

Their penitence was shown in (1) proclaiming a fast and putting on sack-cloth (vv. 5-7). These marks of humiliation were shown by all, from the king on his throne to the most humble man. (2) Cried mightily to God (v. 8). In the midst of their humiliation they cried with intensity to God. (3) Turned from their evil ways (v. 8). The final test of penitence is turning from sin; it is hating sin badly enough to quit it.

4. Accepted by God (v. 10). When the Ninevites turned from their evils God refrained from executing doom upon them. It averted judgment. God is unchangeable. His holy nature is unalterably opposed to sin. When men repent from their sins his wrath is turned aside. This is what is meant by God repenting.

2. The Necessity of Repentance (Luke 13: 1-5).

Repentance is necessary on the part of all, since all are sinners. "The wages of sin is death" (Rom. 6:23). While God is unalterably opposed to sin he is infinitely gracious. His holy nature compels him to cause judgment to fall upon those who will not turn from their sins to serve him. Repentance is not merely a matter of privilege, but of absolute necessity if one would escape the wrath of God. Repentance is the only door of escape from perdition. It is not a question of how great a sinner one is that determines the need for repentance, since God cannot look upon evil; "For thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look upon iniquity." (Hab. 1-13). No one can ever see him in peace unless he turns from his sins. God commands men to repent (Acts 17:30).

3. The Blessed Results of Repentance (Acts 2:37, 38).

1. Remission of sins. Remit means to send away. The one who repents is rid forever of his sins, for he is a new man in Christ.

2. Gift of the Holy Spirit. When one is regenerated he not only is rid of his sins, but God, the Holy Spirit, takes up his abode in him. He is his teacher, guide and defender. These blessed results ought to move one to repent. The goodness of God ought to provoke men to penitence.

Japanese Imperialism Has Attempted To Denationalize Koreans

As the facts concerning the true position in Korea slowly filter their way through a rigorous Japanese censorship, to the outside world, it becomes more and more apparent that Japan is seeking to maintain her hold on the peninsula in a truly Japanese fashion. In spite of all official statements to the contrary, reports from many different quarters are gradually establishing the fact that the Japanese authorities in Korea are putting down the independence movement with a ruthlessness all too reminiscent of the Prussian method in Europe and elsewhere. Indeed, as time goes on, it becomes apparent that the Korean tragedy, for it can be called nothing less today, is remorselessly compelling Japan to reveal herself in her true character.

"Japanese imperialism," declared Dr. Lyngman Rhee, secretary of the provisional government of Korea, to a representative of this paper a few days ago, "has for ten years, attempted to stamp out Korean native civilization and to denationalize the Koreans as a distinct race." And how has Japan done this or attempted to do it? In much the same way that Germany attempted to do the same kind of thing in Poland, in Schleswig, and in Alsace-Lorraine. With the aid of a spy system based on the German model, Japan has sought to develop every occasion to create dissension amongst the Koreans themselves. She has carried out a ruthless system of colonization, replacing native Koreans with Japanese coolies, in every way, as Dr. Rhee expressed it, has sought to make Korea "more Japanese than Japan herself racially, religiously and every other way."

As long as the Koreans submitted, all apparently went well. The outer world heard little about the situation, and Tokio could send out, as it did, year by year, a veritable flood of illustrated literature showing the abounding prosperity of Chosen under Japanese rule. The moment, however, the Koreans sought to throw off the yoke, a reign of terror ensued. Unresisting crowds were fired on, and hundreds and thousands killed or wounded; churches were wrecked, private houses entered, and young men and women dragged off to prison and unmercifully flogged. This is only the mildest part of the story. There are many other more shameful details. And it all means, of course, that Japan has not begun to learn the lessons which the war has forced upon the rest of the world. Such methods are no longer possible, and, no matter how apparently powerful the nation that attempts to make use of them, they will, sooner or later, prove that nation's undoing.—Christian Science Monitor.

Italians are Irritated

Premier Was Ready to Bring Italy Into Agreement

Paris. — Much comment has arisen over the fact that Italy is not included in the proposed agreement between Great Britain, the United States and France, for mutual action against Germany, should Germany again become aggressive toward France. It is said that Premier Orlando was ready to bring Italy into the agreement and that he took part in some of the early discussions, although the plans were consummated about the time of the high tension which removed Premier Orlando from active participation in the council of four.

Because of Italy's membership in the former triple alliance, it is said in some French quarters it was a serious omission not to include Italy in the new Franco-British-United States agreement.

Belgium Protects Children

Trying to Re-organize Industry On That Basis

Washington. — Belgium had begun to make progress toward safeguarding its children when the outbreak of the war stopped this movement, it was stated by Dr. Rene Sand, of the ministry of labor of Belgium, at the conference in Washington on child welfare standards. During the German occupation, he said, no Belgians worked more than they were compelled to, because such work enriched the Germans, and legal regulation of child labor was not attempted.

Now Belgium is trying to re-organize industry on a basis that will protect the child, even though the economic pressure due to the cost of the war tempts the children into industry. He urged a minimum wage law, among other legislative regulations, as essential to the well-being of children, as well as of adults.

Wash The Kidneys!

After Bad Colds or Influenza Look to Kidneys and Bladder!

Owing to bad colds, over-eating or intemperance, or to the after effects of influenza—uric acid and toxins (poisons) are stored up in the body and cause backache, lumbago, rheumatic pains and stiff joints.

It is most essential that treatment be directed towards prompt casting out of the poisons from the body which cause these pains and aches. This means that the excretory organs—(the bowels, skin and kidneys)—should be excited to their best efforts. Every one should clean house—internally—and thus protect one's self from many grave diseases, by taking castor oil or a pleasant laxative such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which are made of May-apple, aloes and jalap. Take these every other day. This will excite efficient bowel action. If you suffer from backache, irritation of the bladder and the kidneys, shown by the frequent calls to get out of bed at night, considerable sediment in the water, brick-dust deposit, perhaps headache in the morning, you should obtain at the drug store "Anuric" (anti-uric acid), first put up by Dr. Pierce.

To build up the strength and improve the blood, take an iron tonic such as "Irontic," manufactured by Dr. Pierce, to be had in tablets at drug stores, or some good herbal tonic such as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made from wild roots and barks without alcohol, and put up in tablets or liquid.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR LTITLE ONES

Thousands of mothers state positively that Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine they know of for little ones. Their experience has taught them that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them and that they can be given with perfect safety to children of all ages. Concerning them Mrs. Joseph Therrien, St. Gabriel de Brandon, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine I know of for little ones. I thought I would lose my baby before trying the Tablets, but they soon made him healthy and happy and now I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. William's Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Floods in Sweden

Damage Estimated at More Than 30,000,000 Kronen

Stockholm. — North Sweden is experiencing the worst floods in many years, due to abnormal rain and snowfall. The damage is estimated at more than 30,000,000 kronen. There have been avalanches and landslides in the Tromsoe district.

The farms were swept into the sea, twelve persons meeting death. Two cities, Solleftea and Hernosand, are isolated. The railway banks have been washed away and the bridges destroyed.

The town of Sundsvaal also has been badly damaged. Two bridges in the town were carried away and more than one hundred houses along the water front are submerged. Entire villages are isolated. Horses and cattle disappeared in the first furious current.

Belgium Seeks Pledge

Will Demand Military Security Against Repetition of Invasion

Washington. — Belgium apparently will not rest satisfied with the general security which the league of nations is expected to provide for small and large nations alike, but will demand military security against the repetition of the invasion of 1914.

Plenipotentiaries from Belgium, France, Great Britain and Holland are scheduled to get together soon, in order to agree on an arrangement which will replace the treaty of 1839 and provide security for Belgium. Belgian representatives will demand that towns handed over to Prussia by the congress of Vienna be handed back to the mother country.

Almost a Miracle, But Very Simple

Was the Cure of John New by Dodd's Kidney Pills

His Troubles All Came from Sick Kidneys and He Treated Them With the Old Reliable Canadian Remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Hillside, Battleford, Sask, May 10. (Special).—With a speed that was almost miraculous, Mr. John New, a well-known farmer here, has been cured of the kidney trouble from which he suffered for several years.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me," he says. "I wish to give them all the thanks."

Speaking further of his troubles and their sudden cure, Mr. New says: "I think I inherited by kidney disease from my parents, and I suffered off and on for several years. I had stiffness in the joints, cramps in the muscles, backache, and neuralgia.

"I perspired freely on the slightest exertion and my perspiration had an unpleasant odor. I was irritable, often dizzy and was depressed and low spirited. My skin was dry and had a harsh feel and I was often nervous.

"I took just one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills. They cured me."

If your troubles come from the kidneys you will have some of the symptoms that Dodd's Kidney Pills cured in Mr. New's case. Ask your neighbors about Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Huns Want Cheaper Food

Will Conditionally Abandon Demands for Higher Wages

Berlin. — Almost unnoticed amid the excitement incident to the receipt of the peace terms, and probably influenced by them, a movement, in which the workers are receding from their earlier demands for higher wages and are striving to induce the government to reduce prices, is gradually gaining ground.

The latest organization to adopt this policy is the German railwaymen's association, whose representatives at a conference with Minister Schmidt, agreed to abandon demands for higher wages, if the government would reduce food prices.

Why Can't I Get To Sleep?

Thousands of people all over the country ask this question, but still continue to toss night after night on a sleepless bed, and it is impossible for them to get a full night's refreshing sleep.

Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system that it cannot be quietened except by the pernicious use of opiates or narcotics. Or again, you have heart palpitation, and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die, or perhaps you wake up in your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and the only way you can get relief is to sit up in bed.

To all who suffer in this way, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills offer an inestimable boon. They bring back the much-needed night's rest by improving the tone of the nerves, strengthen the heart, enriching the blood and making the whole organization act in harmony—then you sleep as peaceful as a child.

Mrs. Jas. Latimer, 39 Leinster St., St. John, N.B., writes:—"At night I could not sleep. I had to sit up in bed, my heart beat so fast, and when I walked up stairs I would get all out of breath. A friend recommended Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after using two boxes, I can sleep all night and am not out of breath after walking."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Premier Borden To Return

Sir George Foster and Mr. Doherty Intend to Remain in Paris

Paris. — In view of the fact that the principles have been settled upon whihc peace is to be established, Sir Robert Borden and Hon. Arthur Sifton have left Paris for London and will proceed to Canada by the first available boat.

They have been absent from Canada more than six months, far beyond the period anticipated, when Mr. Lloyd George called them to London in November last. The date at which the peace will eventually be signed is a matter of conjecture, but questions of importance awaiting consideration in Canada necessitate his return.

Sir George Foster and Mr. Doherty will remain in Paris for the present, and if is possible that if negotiations should be of a prolonged nature, they too will return to Canada before the signing of the treaty. In this event the prime minister and Mr. Sifton will doubtless return to their duties in Paris at the end of the present session.

Since the arrival of Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues six months ago, the overseas dominions have attained an entirely new status. Their position as self-governing nations within the great commonwealth has been internationally recognized, first in their admission to the peace conference, and in the decision that the treaty should be signed on behalf of His Majesty by representtives of each of the great dominions. Canada has undoubtedly led in the effort to win this position, which effort has been prolonged, insistent and continuous. It began in London before the arrival of the French and Italian premiers in December last. It has continued during the subsequent conferences both in London and at Paris. In the various commissions and committees, Canadian ministers have taken their places as representatives of the whole empire. Latterly the status of the dominions in relation to the council of the league of nations and the governing body of the labor convention has been under consideration, and, as a result of the strong stand taken by Caadian ministers, the position has been made both satisfactory and secure. Canada has good reason to be congratulated upon the place thus accorded her, and it is well that her people should realize that this place has been won by the ability, integrity and determination of her representatives.

Finding Market For Range Horses

High Freight Rates Present Greatest Problem

Ottawa. — At a gathering of representatives of the livestock interests of the Dominion here, plans were considered for the finding of a market for Canada's surplus of animals, more particularly of range horses in the west.

Mr. Arkell, Dominion livestock commissioner, who returned recently from a trip to England where he went to make a study of livestock conditions, reported among other things, that there is a market in Poland for half a million horses if this could be arranged. This is the big problem to be solved for with ocean freight rates at their present high level, it would be practically impossible to land horses in the European market at a saleable figure and pay the western farmer a reasonable figure for his stock.

Refuses to Receive Irish Delegates

Premier Lloyd George Has Taken Definite Stand

London. — It was learned in official quarters that Frank P. Walsh, Edward Dunne and Michael F. Ryan, representatives of Irish societies in the United States, who have been visiting Dublin and other cities in Ireland, will not be received by Premier Lloyd George on their return to Paris, nor will they be accorded any official or semi-official recognition.

According to a Reuter's dispatch from Paris, Col. E. M. House, who had promised to endeavor to arrange an interview between the United States delegates and the British premier, has now, in view of their activities in Ireland, decided not to act as intermediary.

Do Not Contemplate Attack

London. — Questioned in the house of commons regarding the Stockholm report that the entente powers are preparing naval and military operations against Petrograd, Andrew Bonar Law, government leader in the house of commons, said a British squadron has been at Helsingfors for a long time to meet whatever emergencies might arise, but "no definite proposal of the kind suggested is contemplated at this moment."

Damage Done To Rheims Cathedral

Will Take a Generation to Repair It

Paris. — In view of the conflicting reports which have from time to time been published with regard to the damage done to Rheims cathedral by the German bombardment, the following statement has been received from an authoritative source:

The western facade and portal are severely battered, the greater number of the pinnacles of the southern front have been shot away, the roof has several gaping holes in it, the high altar is a formless mass of debris, and the choir, as such, has ceased to exist. Some of the glass has been preserved, but most has been totally destroyed. All that really remains are the core of the fabric—probably considerably shaken and weakened—and the remarkable series of statues within the west wall.

Nothing in the way of restoration has yet been begun, and the public are shown the church by a guardian who tells them that it will take a generation to repair it. It is hard to conceive any better reminder of the German than the pathetic sight of this monument of Gothic are which the vandals of the twentieth century have left a shattered shell.

Giving Back The Eiffel Tower

Has Played Important Role in History of War

Paris. — The Eiffel Tower of Paris has played quite an important role in the history of the war, and this in spite of the fact that, a few years ago, the end of its career as a structure was believed to be impending. Erected in 1889 for the exhibition of 1890, there was a prevalent belief that after 15 or 20 years the condition of the steel would necessitate the demolition of the tower; but fortunately the evil day for the "highest building on earth" was put off. At the beginning of the war, the Eiffel Tower was taken over by the military authorities as an anti-aircraft and observation post, as well as a wireless station. To the lonely watcher at the top of the tower was confided the responsibility of giving warning of the approach of Zeppelins and Gothas. Today Parisians are rejoicing over the prospect of getting their beloved tower back to normal uses. Early this month, it will be thrown open to the public, who, presumably, will once more ascend to its pinnacle for the sake of its unique panoramas and the novelty of sending of the familiar postcard from the top of the tower. In the meantime, the various military services which had their quarters round the base are removing to some other camping ground.

A record price for creamery butter in carload lots was offered on the Regina market, when 68 cents a pound was bid. This is regarded as evidence that butter will go still higher in the near future.

A publisher in Ontario complains that if the people and governments continue to send in their requests for free publicity he will be compelled to purchase a larger waste paper basket. This is a raw deal in these days when the high cost of living is above the sky line for publishers and continues to ascend.

Our storekeepers are anxious that every person should remember that their clerks want a holiday on Victoria Day—May 24—and that the stores will be closed until 6:30 p. m. It is but right the clerks should have this legal holiday and who will be so mean as to ask them to work when all others play?

"Just because a fool shot a few holes in my overcoat, I am not going to indulge in the luxury of a new one while clothes are so expensive".

That is what Premier Clemenceau of France declared at the peace conference in Paris when an inquisitive correspondent asked the "Tiger" why he still wore the jacket pierced by Emile Cottin, the assassin's bullet a few months ago.

The French are a thrifty race and expert clothes menders. The bullet holes can be "stopped" so as to defy detection, and the coat will be as good as ever. This is M. Clemenceau's opinion.

If the chief of all France is such a thrifty man, it can do no harm to follow his example. The simplest and most practical way of displaying thrift is—buy W.S.S.

That the Gleichen District Agricultural Association's Victoria Day celebration will be a successful affair is a foregone conclusion and all those who fail to be in town early Saturday morning and stay until late that night will miss one of those "good old times" we are all so prone to talk about.

At the present writing the exact program is unobtainable for the reason that the various items have been divided among the members of the committee to work out, who may possibly have their work complete and report before our last pages go on the press. However, the following outline for the program gives a fair idea of what it will be, and the prizes will be appropriate to each event:

Baseball Game—Strathmore vs. Gleichen

Sports for the Children—Consisting of Races, Jumping Contests, etc., etc. Suitable prizes being offered for each event.

Junior Baseball Match—Will be arranged with the Bassano School Boys if possible.

Tug of War—Arrangements are under way to bring a team from Strathmore to compete against Gleichen team.

OUR COUNTRY'S NAME

Said to be Derived From the Spanish "Nothing Doing"

It is not generally known amongst the Canadian people, the strange origin of the name "Canada." The first explorers of this country were the Spanish, who came here on a quest for gold and silver; their efforts were unavailing, which led them to use the words, when the country was referred to, of "Aca nada," meaning "There is nothing here." The Indians, always observant of the customs and words of the white man, learned the sentence, and its meaning, and at the time of the arrival of the French, whom they looked upon as undesirable intruders, on the same occasion as the Spanish, kept pouring into their ears the Spanish phrase, "Aca nada." The French having as little knowledge of the Spanish language as they, presumed that it was the name of the country, and ultimately christened it Canada.

JAPAN'S SINGING GIRLS

Custom of Eastern Allies Might Well Become General

Our Far Eastern allies, the Japanese, have many charming customs. One, which might very well be copied, has to do with Japanese girls. Every little girl in Japan is taught two things—one, how to arrange flowers most effectively; and the other, to play the guitar. Whenever you enter a Japanese home you will hear the tinkling of the guitar from some room or other.

So fond are our allies of music, indeed, that they rarely take a meal in their own homes without someone playing to them. If it is not one of the little daughters of the family who plays, it is a hired "singing girl" who comes in for the time being. These singing girls are to be found everywhere in Japan, and their services are always in great demand. While the family are eating she chants or sings a song of flowers, or relates one of the many legends of the land, all the time sounding her guitar.

Avoid the Soup Line

Germany can deliver in Chicago, duty paid, for 40 cents an article costing 80 to 90 cents in a Cincinnati factory; a German woman can do for 25 cents the same work for which an American man is paid $2.50; yet free trade invites them to rush in their cheap foreign labor products and let the American workman take his place in the soup line. Is it fair?

Charter of the World's Freedom

The peace treaty, including, as it does, the covenant of the League of Nations, which has been presented to Germany for signature, is without question one of the most important documents ever drafted in the history of this old world. It takes its place along with Magna Charta and the American Declaration of Independence as an instrument of the first magnitude in providing for and safeguarding the liberties of mankind. Magna Charta and the Declaration of Independence won for the English-speaking peoples of the world those rights and liberties which we prize so highly, and in defence of which we are ever ready to lay down our lives, and they had their effect on other nations. But the treaty of Versailles, 1919, is designed to guarantee the rights and liberties, not of one race or one nation, but of all races and all nations.

The penalties imposed on Germany are severe, but who will say they are not just and necessary? Insofar as Germany is deprived of territory in Europe, it is taken away from her, not in a spirit of revenge nor of aggrandizement on the part of the allies, but in order to right wrongs inflicted by Germany on others in the heyday of her autocratic military power. She loses her colonies because she demonstrated that she was not a fit nation to be trusted with power over subject peoples or native races.

The German people have shown down through the centuries, time and time again, that in their hands power was misused and abused, that they thoroughly believed in and acted upon their doctrine that Might was Right. Therefore, power has been taken away from them, their army and navy destroyed, and the most drastic prohibition imposed in order that they may never again endanger the peace of the world. It has been found necessary to even circumscribe and restrict the use they may make of economic weapons, because, in the past, Germans manipulated their finances, industries, transportation systems, shipping, trade and commerce as parts of their military machine.

The huge sums of money which Germany must pay to the allies are not extorted from her as was the indemnity which Germany imposed on France in 1871. Germany then imposed a fine on France, but today the allies are but compelling Germany to make restitution and reparation for the wanton destruction she has caused in Belgium, France, Serbia and other countries and for the crimes committed against inoffensive non-combatants contrary to all the accepted usages of war.

The peace treaty, however, is much more than the infliction of just punishment on Germany for the horrors and sufferings she brought upon the world and the enforcement of guarantees against a repetition of the outrage. With its League of Nations covenant it is a declaration of principles for the guidance of all nations, large and small, in their dealings with one another. It does even more than that—it lays down principles which are to govern within the nations themselves in their dealings with their own people.

Well defined principles are laid down under which the more advanced nations are to be entrusted with mandatory powers over less advanced territories and less enlightened peoples. Where people are not yet capable of self-government, they are to be governed, not for the benefit and aggrandizement of the governing body, but for the advancement and in the welfare of the people themselves. So, too, is it clearly defined that in all nations the man who works with his hands, and puts his physical strength in his work, is no longer to be regarded as a mere commodity to be used for profit, but as a human being, a partner in the world's work.

No longer are the small and weak nations of the world to be forced to live in constant dread under the menace of a rattling sword in the hands of a stronger nation; no longer are peoples and races to be held subject to a foreign yoke; no longer will the ruthless Turk be allowed to put helpless Armenians to the fire and sword; no longer will it be necessary that millions of men be held in idleness in huge conscript armies while other millions are burdened with taxes to maintain them in idleness; no longer is the chief business of Europe to be war and preparation for war. The peace treaty declares that it is to be the international business of the world to create better living conditions for the masses, to provide safeguards for the health of mankind, to put down slavery in all its forms, to seek the destruction of the opium traffic and other vices—in a word to build up and benefit, not to tear down and blight.

The peace treaty and the League of Nations covenant are not perfect. It is a human document, and subject to all human weaknesses and frailities. But its intention is good, and the best minds in the world have been responsible for its drafting. It may fail in its whole object, but failure will not result from a lack of sincere effort to attain success. It is the charter of a world's freedom—a contract of release from the age-old crime of war. It remains for the masses of the peoples of the world, who are the real sufferers in all wars, to insist that it be lived up to and fully respected.

A Giant Electric Motor

No Other Form of Power Can Meet Every Demand

The driving of a rolling mill is one of the heaviest problems which an engineer has to solve. In itself the machinery is massive; and the work of rolling huge billets of steel stage by stage down to rails or beams involves spasms of enormous energy at frequent intervals. Moreover, the mills are usually kept running night and day, so that the driving plant must be reliable as well as powerful. For a long time it was doubted whether electric power could satisfactorily take the place of the magnificent steam engines which British engineers had evolved for rolling mill work, but experience proved that it could be made at least equally reliable while it was more economical in power and in space. Special types of motor had to be designed for rapid reversing and special accessories to supply the big reserve of power required when the billets just enter the rolls. One of the latest and largest equipments of this kind in Great Britain is driven by an electric motor of no less than 20,000 horse power. There is no other form of power which can meet every demand from a tiny dentist's drill up to the colossal rolling mill.

The Home Town

You Have a Responsibility Concerning It

The interests of town and country are so interwoven that only the "get-together" spirit that results in concerted action can promote the progress that brings good to all.

Don't forget this principal in forming your attitude toward yon home town.

That home town may not be all that you would like it to be. But don't turn against it on that account. Remember, it is "your" home town—a vital part of your community. You can't afford to have it decline, any more than you can afford to have part of your community remain unsanitary. Its nearness increases the price of your land, and decreases the cost of getting your produce to market. It gives you easy access to the service of doctor, dentist, druggist and merchant. It provides a convenient meeting place where you can exchange ideas and get the broader, healthier point of view that social contact with your fellow men develops. It is logically your community. In practically every way your home town holds present or possible good for you.

Because it is your home town, and because its welfare means so much to you, you have a responsibility concerning it. You owe it your support—your co-operation with the town's business men. Sincere, earnest co-operation between the town and country people of any community will free that community from all of the handicaps to healthy, prosperous growth.—Exchange.

Not Much Grain For Elevators

Edmonton.—Very little grain is coming to the Edmonton elevators from farmers in the surrounding district at the present time, and a number of firms have closed down until the new fall wheat begins to move. Elevator managers attribute dulness of the grain trade just now to the cause which only seems natural, the work of the farmer with spring seeding and his desire to hold his grain until he has all the seed he requires. Elevators anticipate the release of a little more grain from the farmers' bins after the seeding is over, but do not think there are very large quantities to be sold.

Child Had St. Vitus' Dance

And Was Losing Control of Arms and Legs Because of Exhausted Condition of Nerves—Doctor Said He Could Do Nothing But Complete Cure Was Effected

Cordova, Man., May 26.—To parents who are anxious or worried about the health of their growing children this letter must prove a message of good cheer. So many cures similar to this one have come to our attention that we are forced to consider Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the most effective treatment available for St. Vitus' Dance and all such conditions, which result from nervous exhaustion.

To children who are naturally nervous the strain of school life is often more than they can bear, and the results are seen in headaches, eye troubles, loss of appetite and indigestion. The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at such times soon puts them on their feet and restores health and vigor.

Mrs. Wm. Matt. Cordova, Man., writes:

"My little girl, ten years old, was not very well, and I noticed some rather odd ways about her. She used to act very strangely at times. I asked the doctor what could be the matter, and he said she had St. Vitus' Dance; to keep her quiet and out of school. He said treatments weren't any use for her. She was affected in this way for a year. I thought something ought to be done, so in looking over Dr. Chase's Almanac I read several testimonials from people who had used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I sent for six boxes and started this treatment with my daughter. Before she had finished the first box I could see a great change in her, and by the time she had taken the six boxes she was completely cured. She is real well now, and going to school every day. "Another daughter of mine has found Dr. Chase's Catarrh Powders very beneficial, and we always keep the Kidney-Liver Pills on hand as a household remedy for backache, etc."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75 at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.

Allies to Attack Petrograd

Stockholm.—Entente forces are preparing military operations with Helsingfors as a base, for an attack upon Petrograd, according to a Helsingfors dispatch to the Afton Tidnigen. Eight thousand troops are expected to take part in the operation, according to the dispatch which says that French cruisers are now lying in the Gulf of Finland off Helsingfors.

Requisite on the Farm.—Every farmer and stock raiser should keep a supply of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on hand, not only as a ready remedy for ills in the family, but because it is a horse and cattle medicine of great potency. As a substitute for sweet oil for horses and cattle affected by colic it far surpasses anything that can be administered.

Relief for Czecho-Slovaks

Berne.—A Prague dispatch states that 2,000 tons of foodstuffs have reached the Czecho-Slovak republic by barges from Hamburg. This relief eases the situation and renders the Bohemian outlook far more hopeful than it has been during the last few weeks, when famine menaced the country.

The Only Way to Attain Prosperity

George Merrick Speaks of Real Source of Wealth in Western Provinces

George Merrick, of Merrick-Anderson, well known Winnipeg Winnipeg wholesale merchant, who for years has taken a deep personal interest in all matters relating to agriculture in this province, expresses the conviction that the public men of Canada and a great many others are putting the emphasis in this reconstruction period at the wrong point. This is an agricultural province, with a rich and fertile soil, and the wealth which its people will have in future years must be got from the farm.

"Our government speaks about expenditures on railways, on canals, and on the building of vessels and the construction of railway equipment, and so giving employment to soldiers, but nothing about production, nothing about the two-year-old heifer, nothing about the poultry. Not a word. How is the world going to be fed?

GEO. A. MERRICK

"The newspapers fail us as well as our public men. I was west of this city yesterday, calling on an old friend, and I was told how much land there was between Winnipeg and Portage la Prairie which had never been under the plow. Why don't the newspapers jack us up and tell us who are in the city and who have a little money to go out in the country and arrange to get some of this land under cultivation? There are hundreds of men in Winnipeg who could take an interest directly in agriculture with the best results both to themselves and the people of this province.

"Someone called on me a few days ago and asked me to talk about better business. I replied that the thing which I was most interested in at the moment was the wonderful cow which was on exhibition at the industrial bureau. We have been thinking too much about business and not enough about the cow. It is the cow that must make the province rich and prosperous, and give the people of the province what they require."

Condition of Russian Lines

Only 12 Per Cent. of Locomotives in Working Order

Berne.—According to information received in Switzerland recently, the only railway line in Russia on which traffic is anything like normal is the one which connects Petrograd with Moscow, on which express trains do the journey of 600 versts in 15 hours. On the remaining lines, only 12 per cent. of the number of locomotives which were running at the beginning of the war are still in working order. The railway works at which locomotives are repaired employ three times more workmen than in 1914, while their productive capacity has diminished tenfold. On the main line from Moscow to Petrograd, about 40 per cent. of the rolling stock is still in working order. On the other lines, the percentage of available rolling stock varies from 5 to 15 per cent. and the situation becomes worse from week to week.

STRENGTH FOR THE DAY'S WORK

DEPENDS UPON GOOD BLOOD TO NOURISH THE BODY

Weak People Need a Tonic, One Which Acts Directly Upon the Blood and that Does Not Weaken the Body By Useless Purging.

There are thousands of people throughout Canada who are without ambition or strength to do their day's work, and who are always tired out, have but little appetite and a poor digestion. They cannot get a refreshing night's sleep and are subject to headaches, backaches and nervousness, because their blood is impure. To men and women in this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills give quick relief and permanent cure because of their direct action on the blood, which they build up to its normal strength. As the blood becomes rich and red it strengthens the muscles, tones up the nerves, makes the stomach capable of digesting food, and repairs the wastes caused by worry or work. In a word, the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills means restoration to perfect health.

BLOOD TURNED TO WATER

Miss Jessie McLean, Trenton, N.S., says:—"I was as weak as it was possible for any one to be, and yet be able to go about. My blood seemed to have turned almost to water. I was pale, the least exertion would leave me breathless, and when I went up stairs I would have to stop and rest on the way. I often had severe headaches, and at times my heart would palpitate alarmingly. A good friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have reason to be grateful that I took the advice. Soon after beginning the use of the Pills I began to get stronger, and by the time I had taken seven boxes I felt that I was again enjoying good health. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a blessing to weak girls and I shall always warmly recommend them."

RHEUMATIC PAINS

The sufferer from rheumatism who experiments with outward applications is only wasting valuable time and good money in depending upon such treatment, the trouble still remains, and is all the time becoming more firmly rooted—harder to cure when the proper treatment is applied. Treat this disease through the blood and you will soon be rid of the pains and tortures. As a cure for rheumatism Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are unequalled. They act directly on the impure, weak blood; they purify and strengthen it, and so root out the cause of rheumatism. Mr. D. Lewis, postmaster at Escuminac, N.B., says: "I was attacked with rheumatism, which settled in my elbow, shoulder and knee joints, and at times caused me great suffering. The trouble was particularly severe last spring and I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After taking the Pills for some time the rheumatic pains and stiffness in the joints disappeared and I have not had any return of the trouble."

A GOOD DIGESTION

Mrs. William Dale, Midland, Ont., says:—"I suffered for a long time from a severe form of indigestion, and had doctored so much without benefit that I had all but given up hope of getting better. Everything I ate caused me intense pain and some days I did not touch a thing but a cup of cold water, and even that distressed me. As a result I was very much run down, and slept so poorly that I dreaded night coming on. I was continually taking medicine, but was actually growing worse instead of better. Having often read the cures made by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I finally decided to give them a trial. I have had great cause to bless this decision, for by the time I had used a couple of boxes there was no doubt the pills were helping me, and in less time than I had anticipated the pills had cured me and I was again enjoying not only good digestion, but better health in every way than before."

ALWAYS FEELS FIT

The wonderful success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is due to the fact that they go right to the root of the disease in the blood, and by making the vital fluid rich and red strengthen every organ and every nerve, thus driving out disease and pain, and making weak, despondent people bright, active and strong. Mr. W. T. Johnson, one of the best known and most highly esteemed men in Lunenburg County, N.S., says:—"I am a Provincial Land Surveyor, and am exposed the greater part of the year to very hard work travelling through the forests by day and camping out by night, and I find the only thing that will keep me up to the mark is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I leave home for a trip in the woods I am as interested in having my supply of pills as provisions, and on such occasions I take them regularly. The result is I am always fit. I never take cold, and can digest all kinds of food such as we have to put up with hastily cooked in the woods. Having proved the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a tonic and health builder, I am never without them and I lose no opportunity in recommending them to weak people I meet."

SKIN TROUBLE CURED

Mrs. W. Ritchie, Parkbeg, Sask., says:—"Two years ago I was attacked with eczema on my hands. I tried almost everything that was advised, but as the trouble was growing worse I consulted a doctor and took his treatment for some time with no better results. By this time my hands were a mass of sores and I began to despair of finding a cure. A friend strongly advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to do so. After using two boxes I could see an improvement and I got a further supply. I used altogether eight boxes, by which time every trace of the eczema had disappeared and there has been not a single symptom of the trouble since that time. I gladly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for troubles of this kind."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be kept in every home, and their occasional use will keep the blood pure and ward off illness. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

More Production To Solve Labor Unrest

Ottawa.—That there is a shortage of food in the world; that Canadian prices are regulated by demand abroad; that there is no great surplus of food supply in Canada; that the duty of Canada is food production for the benefit of itself and the world, that the government may present a program to regulate the cost of living, and that industrial unrest can be traced to the cost of living, were stated in the senate by Hon. G. D. Robertson, minister of labor.

Hon. Mr. Robertson said that there appeared to be a great deal of misunderstanding in Canada as indicated by press comment and resolutions calling for means to reduce the cost of living and charging present high prices of food to hoarding or profit. Mr. Robertson said the people of Canada should know there is no surplus of food in Canada, and unless production was increased there was little hope for such reduction of food prices.

As to food in cold storage if at once realized little would be gone to relieve the situation. If all the butter in storage on May 1 was distributed it would give each Canadian 1.7 ounces; a division of oleomargarine would give each Canadian less than a quarter of a pound. The quantity of butter in cold storage was 838,231 pounds; oleomargarine, 315,764; cheese, 1,-064,318 pounds; eggs a little over 4,000,000, or a third of a dozen per head; pork, two and a half, and beef, three and a half pounds per person. What more had been said than excessive consumption he could not say. He gave the figure to show the incorrectness of the idea that there was high price of butter, for instance, due to there being large quantities in storage held for the benefit of the hoarder. This was the year for egg production when usually they are collected for storing, but today eggs were not forthcoming, and therefore only small stocks are being laid away. Unless production increased there was the prospect of an egg famine within a year.

Reds Attempt to Kill Paderewski

Attack on Premier Upon His Return to Warsaw

New York.—A Warsaw dispatch reports an attempt by Bolsheviste to assassinate Premier Ignace Paderewski. Few details of the attack on the premier are to hand although it is stated that the attempted assassination took place as he alighted from his train upon his return to Warsaw from Paris.

The attempt followed a series of demonstrations of approval which welcome accorded to M. Paderewski at the towns and cities through which he passed on his return to Warsaw. These receptions being a tribute to the work for Poland which the premier had done at the Polish conference in Paris.

The Poles are satisfied with the decision on the Danzig question and are also pleased with the solution of the Polish boundary problem. The decision on the Teschen coal field, some disappointment is expressed.

Germans Will Hold Out

Ebert Hopes U.S. Democracy Will Not Accept Treaty

Berlin.—Declaring that the terms of peace presented by the allied and associated governments to Germany "contemplate the physical, moral and intellectual paralysis" of the German people, that Germany were "hypnotized" by Woodrow Wilson, by President Wilson, and that he, himself, is looking forward to the future, "with gravest apprehension," President Ebert said that he still hoped that the United States democracy would not accept the treaty framed at the peace conference. He reported with disdain the suggestion that the present German government would resign rather than accept the terms, saying that the government would "hold out to the end."

German Chancellor Appeals for Sympathy

Says British Cannot Intend Reducing Them to Slavery

London.—Philipp Scheidemann, the German chancellor, has sent through the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Herald, an appeal to the British people to realize the "appalling position Germany is placed in by the peace conditions."

Herr Scheidemann in his appeal makes various points similar to those of speeches of his that have already been reported, and in addition says:

"We cannot believe that fellow human beings, however much under the influence of a wicked war, can really intend to reduce a kindred civilized people to slavery, for that is what these conditions mean.

"We Germans call upon you English not to force us to sign away our birthright and the peace of Europe in our hour of weakness."

Germans Prepare Counter Proposals

Will Submit Substitutes for Terms of Treaty

Paris.—The German peace delegation, is busy preparing voluminous counter-proposals for submission to the allied and associated powers as substitutes for terms of the peace treaty. Several economic sub-committees of the delegation met including the one on coal supply.

The Council of Four, composed of Premiers Lloyd George, Clemenceau, Orlando and President Wilson, considered the question of the imposing of the blockade on Germany in case that country declined to sign the peace treaty. The subject was under discussion at two separate meetings of the council. On the other hand it is anticipated that the blockade will be entirely lifted immediately if the German delegation affix their signatures to the treaty.

A note on reparations does not protest against the payment by Germany for the devastation wrought in Belgium and northern France, which, it says, Germany is ready to do willingly. It is added, however, that Germany will not pay reparation for this damage on the principle that she was responsible for the war.

Haig Believes In Racial Equality

Would Give All Races British Freedom and Justice

London.—Field Marshal Haig has been installed as rector of St. Andrew's University. In his speech he said that if we wished to avoid a repetition of the catastrophe of a world war we must be prepared to actively prevent it. The seeds of future material conflicts could be found everywhere in the world.

Among the more obvious possibilities of trouble was the problem known as the "yellow peril."

The Chinese must eventually demand a place in the European labor market. India was beginning to turn, toward industrial and political development. He suggested that the solution was to give all races British freedom and justice, thereby in the course of many years levelling them up to our standards of life. The league of nations could never absolve from our mission as an empire.

Alien Homesteaders To Be Investigated

Action Taken to Make Them Available for Soldier Settlement

Ottawa.—Dominion lands held under homestead entry by aliens and others whose duties are in default will be checked by the Dominion land agents and action taken to make them available for soldier settlement.

This action is the result of conferences between the department of interior and soldier settlement board. It also has been decided to check up land held under the temporary reservations which might now be discontinued.

The soldier settlement board will take steps at once to enlist the cooperation of municipalities in ascertaining from local sources information concerning such lands.

An absorbing romance in serial form commences in this week's paper.

To Maintain Order in Schleswig

Paris.—The council of foreign ministers is considering a plan prepared by the allied military and naval authorities to maintain order in Schleswig, after the evacuation of that territory by the Germans.

The plan contemplated is to use an allied naval force stationed at Flensburg, in which Great Britain, the United States and France will join. Several battalions of infantry will also be employed for the policing of the territory. The selection of an allied commander for this force is under consideration.

Should Have National Land Flags

Ottawa.—During the discussion in committee of supply on an item of $5,000,000 in the house, Mr. McMaster urged that consideration be given to the question of a national land flag for land purposes. Australia and New Zealand had a land flag, and Canada should have one also. It would help to create a sound national spirit. Our soldiers were proud not only of being Canadian citizens, but also of being Canadian citizens.

New Proposals Regarding Fiume

Paris.—M. Trumbitch, the head of the Jugo-Slav mission in Paris, had a conference with Col. E. N. House and Mr. Page, the American ambassador to Italy. It is understood that the conference discussed the formula of a proposed compromise regarding Fiume.

Winnipeg Paralysed by Strike

Greatest Labor Struggle in City's History Now in Progress

Winnipeg.—Winnipeg is now in the throes of the greatest labor struggle of all her history. Estimates vary widely as to the total number of workers out on strike, these running from 15,000 to 27,000.

At a mass meeting of the G.W.V.A., Army & Navy Veterans and Imperial Veterans of Canada associations, including all men of the military and naval services, a resolution was passed to the effect that every legitimate means would be used to preserve law and order; and providing, further, that when the present trouble has been adjusted the returned veterans and labor representatives will discuss the deportation of the undesirable enemy alien.

The mayor and city council are grappling with the problem of maintaining the essential services of public utilities, police and fire protection, as the tie-up grows. Every walk of industrial and commercial life in Winnipeg is represented among the strikers. Wholesale and retail stores are affected, and in a number of cases, closed. The large department stores have experienced only a partial walk-out and are continuing to give service. The biggest of these, employing some 6,000 hands, have volunteers in almost all employees, including engineers, teamsters, grocery clerks, butchers, and bowson waitresses and kitchen help.

With only the postmaster, his deputy and three stamp clerks remaining on duty, the post office is tied up—269 postal workers having quit at eleven o'clock. Street railway service is at a complete standstill, while the question of the latter's ability to avoid a petition of the catastrophe of a world war we must be prepared to actively prevent it. The seeds of future material conflicts could be found everywhere in the world.

Among the more obvious possibilities of trouble was the problem known as the "yellow peril."

The Chinese must eventually demand a place in the European labor market. India was beginning to turn, toward industrial and political development. He suggested that the solution was to give all races British freedom and justice, thereby in the course of many years levelling them up to our standards of life. The Class A and Class B fairs have been arranged in two circuits, the big circuit commencing at Calgary on June 28th, followed by Edmonton, Saskatoon, Brandon and Regina, ending at the latter place on August 2. Two Class B fairs — Swift Current and Weyburn—then come in, on Aug. 5 to 7. The second circuit commences at Red Deer on July 12, followed by Lacombe, Vermilion, North Battleford, Prince Albert and Yorkton.

The western fairs are looking for big things this year, and are making their plans on a big scale. A number are negotiating for additional buildings and attractions. At the present equipment: Sousa's famous band has been engaged to play at the five big fairs, and with the best attractions and midway obtainable, and a very attractive prize lists, Victory year promises a big increase in attendance at the summer fairs, in both circuits, which are not only the annual holiday time for the westerner, but take a large part in the development of the various industries of this rapidly growing section of the Dominion.

"Accuse French of Spying

Paris. — An official note issued says that a German correspondent sent to the Neues Wiener Tageblatt a dispatch that the hotel at Versailles where the German delegates are housed is full of spies acting as hotel attendants and that microphones have been installed in all the rooms.

The note brands the report as an odious and calumnious invention and says if it is repeated the French government may find it necessary to expel the German correspondents.

Assassination is Threatened

Astounding State of Affairs in Ireland Due to Sinn Fein Proclamation

London.—An astounding state of affairs in Ireland was revealed by the Lord Chancellor in moving the second reading of the criminal injuries (Ireland) bill in the house of commons. The bill provides compensation in the case of any officer of the law who is killed or injured while on duty. The measure is the outcome of the proclamation in Tipperary a counter-proclamation was issued, which declared that any person in the pay of England, magistrates, juries and the like, would be deemed to have forfeited his life.

Persons who gave information to the military or police would be executed—"that is to say, shot or hanged." Volunteers were also called upon to contemplate the possibility of offensive action, more strenuous than in the Easter rebellion. The men who are expected daily to such rules said the Lord Chancellor, should be protected by the whole force of the country, and, if they became the victims of assassination, adequate provision must be made for their widows and families. Lord Crewe, however, thought the situation had been exaggerated. Political sympathizers with the party of violence had taken a step to the left, and were less inclined to support the cause of law and order. The bill was read a second time.

The need of increasing the force has been placed before the authorities who are offering a splendid opportunity to physically fit unmarried returned soldiers or civilians who are desirous of securing outdoor employment.

Friendly Reception Of Austrian Delegates

Paris. — Karl Renner, the Austrian chancellor, brought his peace delegation and their attendants to St. Germain, near Paris, and at a later date will appear before representatives of the allied and associated powers to receive the condition which will spell peace for the former empire.

A notable feature of the reception was the absence of Germans, who had requested permission to greet the Austrians, but had been denied this privilege. The prefect of the department, M. Cheradi, met the Austrians courteously, and although there was no official handshaking, many members of the party were greeted by unofficial handshakes from old acquaintances as they were being shown to the waiting automobiles.

The delegates then proceeded under military escort to the villa, as set aside for them, overlooking the Valley of the Seine and Paris and lacking the high fences and sentries so much in evidence at Versailles.

It was a cosmopolitan crowd which awaited the delegation, French, English, Italian, Japanese and United States journalists and officers. Some of the Austrians gazed enquiringly from the windows of the train, uncertain of their reception, but Chancellor Renner was sure of his ground, and welcomed the friendly spirit displayed with heartiness, which was reciprocated with a strange lip phone assemblage.

Professor Lammasch was accompanied by his wife and daughter, and there were several women secretaries who were shown the greatest courtesy. The Austrian newspaper men of subordinates were quartered in one of the requisitioned hotels.

After their arrival at the villa, the Austrian delegates again thanked the receiving officers for the courteous reception and chatted for a time, contrasting the sunshine and warmth of France with the gloom and bleakness of Austria and Switzerland on the journey hither.

The Austrian chancellor, in his speech on arrival, and later in conversation spoke in German, but excused himself, as being unable to speak French.

Standard Farmers Buy Good Horses

Geo. A. Anthony of Calgary spent about two weeks in the Standard district, during which time he disposed of some classy horses and a number of work animals.

J. Rasmussen is to be congratulated on the class of horses he has gone in for, having a fine band of pure bred Belgian mares. He has now purchased from Mr. Anthony "Prince A", a 25-month-old stallion, weighing 1800 pounds, to head his herd, and it should not be long before Mr. Rasmussen should be known as one of the best Belgian breeders in Western Canada. The price paid is not stated but is said to be in the neighborhood of $3,000. "Prince R" is a grand son of the celebrated horse "Farceur", who, sold for $47,500 in the States.

H. P. Grant, of the Deer Lodge Farm, purchased a pure bred Percheron stallion from Mr. Anthony named "Emperor", the price being about $2,000, we understand. He is three years old, and the farmers of Standard may consider themselves lucky in having a horse of this standard in the district.

E. R. Sparks bought a fine bunch of horses from him, and Peter Beck also invest in a few.

Mr. Anthony not only deals in the best of horse flesh, but when a farmer wants something faster he has the goods. David Gorrie is figuring on taking a trip to Pennsylvania so he sold him a "Grant 6" car.

Rumor has it Capt. Grant wants an air ship and no doubt George will fill the order on receipt.

To start interest and give all a fair chance The Call offers a prize of $5 to the boy or girl who makes the most entries for the coming Gleichen Exhibition under 15 years of age. And another $5 for the lady who makes the most entries, no age limit.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

J. A. Ramsay was here from Calgary yesterday looking after his farm interests south of town.

Mrs. A. R. Yates entertained a number of her friends at a card party on Wednesday evening of last week.

Be ready for the flies. The Revelstoke Sawmill Co. have a good assortment of both screen doors and windows. Do not fail to see them

Mrs. C. J. Bray drove over in her auto last week from Traverse and spent a few days with her Gleichen friends, and visited Calgary before returning home.

The Revelstoke Sawmill Co. have a car of Tamrack cord wood sawed in 12-inch lengths. It is the very thing for summer cooking. Try a load and be convinced.

Manager Griesback has obtained for Saturday, May 24th, a special metro feature with Lady Barnicle starring "Viola Dana", and also a two-reel Keystone comedy.

W. J. Young arrived on Saturday from Cayley to visit his brother and numerous Gleichen friends. His wife and children are now on their way to Scotland to visit her parents.

H. N. Schweigert is having a 30-foot addition built to the Vulcan Iron Works block. He is making many improvements to his plant and is adding a woodwork department. Thus the industrial end of the town grows.

J. F. Daniels and T. W. (Scotty) Davidson has entered into partnership in the painting and decorating business. These two artists need no introduction to Gleichen as their work speaks for them, and all will wish Daniels & Davidson success.

A prize of three dollars is offered by a town lady for the best town flower garden raised by a girl ten years or under; and a further prize of two dollars to the winner on condition that she does not attend a picture show between now and October 31st.

C. F. R. Bruce of Cluny spent a few hours in town Monday, this being about his first visit here since his return from the war some weeks ago. He has been busy on his farm and has 400 acres in crop all showing up above the ground in fine shape. We wish him good luck.

L. J. Canfield, local manager for Lasher & Gillian, has sold the Larkin Block to Robert W. Brown, the proprietor of the People's Bakery. The price paid has not been made public. Mr. Brown has made a success of the bakery business and all will wish him every success in handling this block, which is one of the largest in town.

OUELLETTEVILLE

Sometime ago we were fed up on a proposed rural, starting from Cluny and proceeding north to Crowfoot Creek. Where has the enthusiasm gone to? It certainly would be a boon if it could be realized, as this semi-weekly mail service is a frost and should not be tolerated.

It seems we are to lose our good friend Sam Slater, the genial ditch rider. But he and his good wife will be very much missed. They are good neighbors, always willing to assist the settlers in any way and while always ready to give council in the community Mr. Slater never fails in his duty to his employers, he is always busy. We hope that his removal means promotion, which he so well deserves. Ges Hoo.

Keep your eye on the label on this paper. If it is not up to date do not be surprised if next week your Call fails to arrive.
